

BENDER STARTS AGAINST DEMAREE UNDER DARK SKY

More Than 20,000 Fans Flock to Shibe Park for Fourth Game of Big Series.

ARTHUR FLETCHER, GIANT SHORTSTOP, IN DISFAVOR

Fined $50 by the National Commission for Foul Language to Umpire Connolly Yesterday.

THOUSAND IN LINE ALL NIGHT

Record Breaking Early Morning Crowd, Waiting for Gates to Open, Starts Fighting for Places of Vantage.

SHIBE PARK, PHILADELPHIA, October 10.—Twenty thousand excited Philadelphians and some hundred anxious New Yorkers came out to Shibe Park today to see the New York National League champions engage the Philadelphia Athletics in the fourth game of the world's base ball series. A victory for the Philadelphia club today would make it only necessary for them to win another game to capture the base ball honors for 1913, while the Giants would have to win three straight to win the series.

Still another murky day was furnished for the sport. Dull clouds screened the sun, giving indications of showered weather, while now and then a vagrant drop of rain fell. The diamond was in fine condition and the players said it was lightning fast, but the outer meadows were sodden and slow.

Giants Practice Brilliantly.

The fielding practice of the Giants was punctuated with brilliant fielding and snappy throwing.

The Athletics also showed fine form in fielding practice and came in for loud cheers from the home crowd.

Bender and Schang were selected as the battery for the game, while Demaree and McLean were picked to work for New York.

Snodgrass went to center and Shafer to third. Snodgrass batting first, in Herzog's place in the line-up.

The crowd in the grandstand stood long before the players came on the field, but the reserved sections filled slowly, and it was not until the fielding practice was over that the last of the seats was occupied.

Fletcher Is Fined $50.

Complaint was made to the national commission today by Umpire Connolly that Fletcher, shortstop for the New York team, used obscene and profane language to him after Shafer had been called out at second in the ninth inning of yesterday's game. Connolly went into the stands in disgust, and, using some of which, he said, would not bear repetition. The commission has taken a stand against the use of profane language in the world's series, and Connolly's assertion led to an investigation which resulted in Fletcher being fined $50. The commission decided to permit him to continue to play in the world's series, however.

Teams Work Out Together.

The Athletics and Giants worked out together in early batting practice, during which Eddie Collins and Larry Doyle, while waiting their turn at bat, engaged in a lively fanning bee over places made during the game. Baker and Herzog, who came from the same section on the eastern shore of Maryland, were together, as usual, during practice, talking over the game and the weather. The fans have come to call them the Maryland twins.

Fight for Places in Line.

There were lively times around Shibe Park in the early morning hours. More than 1,000 fans were in line at 7 o'clock when the night police detail was shifted to the day squads. While the change was being made the police for a time lost control, and there were free fights in several places about the park for possession of the line. The police were called in to break up the fights, and the police picked up more than two dozen of the men they found in the possession of waiting fans, but no arrests were made as the authorities could not

NEWMAN'S BATTLE PRESSED IN COURT

Eligibility as Commissioner Upheld by Counsel Before Justice Anderson.

JURISDICTION OF COURT QUESTIONED BY RALSTON

Stress Laid on United States Attorney Wilson's Failure to Act on Frizzell Application.

The question of the eligibility of Oliver P. Newman to hold the office of District Commissioner was argued at length today before Justice Anderson of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, sitting in Circuit Court No. 2. The hearing was on a demurrer and a motion to quash filed by Mr. Newman in place of an answer to the writ in quo warranto issued against him by Justice Wright, calling on him to show by what warrant of law he attempts to exercise the functions of a civil Commissioner.

"I Told You So," Says Mack.

"The result of yesterday's game bore out my claim that we had young pitchers who could be compared to any on the Giants' staff," said the Athletic manager. "Of course, a club that is equipped with hitters does not have to depend on good pitching to win. Mathewson twisted the diamond against us, but I do not think one pitcher can win a world's series. The other pitchers in our younger set are just as eager to show in the series. Mack was actually disappointed because he had a three-run lead when he went in the box yesterday. 'Any one can win this kind of a game,' he said. 'That's the kind of material I have on the pitching staff. It's all I can do to keep them on the bench.'"

Marquard Anxious to Pitch.

It was believed by many that Manager McGraw would duplicate the success of yesterday's game by leading his team to victory, although Marquard, who was taken out of the game after pitching five innings in the opening contest in New York, was said to be anxious to redeem himself and may be given a chance to pitch today.

Woe in House of Fess.

Violent perturbation disturbed the family of Representative Fess of Ohio yesterday when a sergeant-at-arms' telegram was received invoking the representative's presence in Washington to save the no-quorum situation. Representative Fess was not at his Ohio home at the time, but was in Erie, Pa. Mrs. Fess opened the telegram, which read something like this:

Reviews Facts First.

Attorney Ralston first reviewed the facts in the Newman case. He pointed out that the claim has been made that Mr. Newman's residence in Washington is not a bona fide residence, but is a duplicate of the hundreds of others placed in the city in an effort to avoid the payment of taxes.

Chief of Peking's Mounted Police Confesses Plan to Kill Chinese President.

PEKING, October 10.—Chen, the chief of the Peking mounted police, was arrested today while the ceremony of inaugurating Yuan Shi Kai as president of the Chinese republic was in progress. He confessed that southern rebels had bribed him to make an attempt to assassinate Yuan Shi Kai as the president was taking the oath of office.

MANAGER McGRAW SAYS

"Base ball is today a struggle between brains, a wonderfully strategic war whose battles are generally decided by seemingly trivial points by psychological workings overturning the game. I've watched and studied it day after day. Why is it that a certain Chicago pitcher always had us at his mercy, while other teams that could not hit half so hard drove him from the box? Why is it that some of the best pitchers in the world are not another? Simply this: It's the 'Indian sign.' In each case they've got the other fellow's goat, got a mental drop on him."

PRINCE KATSURA DEAD FOLLOWING LONG ILLNESS

Prince Taro Katsura, who was born in 1847, was one of Japan's most prominent soldiers and statesmen. He will be remembered outside his own country principally for the part he took in bringing about the Anglo-Japanese alliance.

NOON EDITION Tomorrow

The Star will issue as usual on Saturday a Noon Edition, giving all of the news of the day up to the noon hour.

SOLDIERS CAUGHT IN POTOMAC PARK

Alleged Assaults of Abraham Yockelson Arrested Early This Morning.

DENSE THICKET USED AS REFUGE FOR NIGHT

Joseph E. Dennison and Albert R. Robertson to Face Charge of Beating Clothier.

After spending the night in the dense thicket in lower Potomac Park, eluding the soldiers and policemen who sought to capture them, the two soldiers who are alleged to have assaulted Abraham Yockelson, a clothier, 421 1/2 street, southeast, were arrested this morning shortly after daybreak. They gave their names as Joseph E. Dennison and Albert R. Robertson. The former is a private and the latter a bugler, in Company C, Engineer Corps, stationed at Washington barracks.

Flashes Proved Useless.

Flashlights were used by the police, but so dense was the undergrowth that they were unable to locate the soldiers, and this morning Dennison and Robertson, realizing their only chance was to get away before the arrival of additional soldiers, left the thicket and started in the direction of the railroad.

Flour Mill Destroyed

When Yockelson left the hospital he went to the police station and gave the police a description of his alleged assailants. A message was received from Police Officer Smith, at the Highway bridge, telling of having seen two men with bloodstains on them.

Business Men's Appreciation of Results.

It was about 6:30 o'clock this morning when the two soldiers were arrested. When they reached the police station they showed plainly the effects of the night's stay in the swampy ground near the river. They were very tired and hungry.

Local Display Advertising Yesterday.

The Evening Star, 22,622 lines
2d Newspaper . . . 7,968 lines
3d Newspaper . . . 5,294 lines
4th Newspaper . . . 3,191 lines
16,453 lines

The Star exceeded its three competitors combined by 6,169, or over 20 columns.

ASSASSIN IS DETECTED

Chief of Peking's Mounted Police Confesses Plan to Kill Chinese President.

PRINCE KATSURA DEAD FOLLOWING LONG ILLNESS

Prince Taro Katsura, who was born in 1847, was one of Japan's most prominent soldiers and statesmen. He will be remembered outside his own country principally for the part he took in bringing about the Anglo-Japanese alliance.

MANAGER McGRAW SAYS

"Base ball is today a struggle between brains, a wonderfully strategic war whose battles are generally decided by seemingly trivial points by psychological workings overturning the game. I've watched and studied it day after day. Why is it that a certain Chicago pitcher always had us at his mercy, while other teams that could not hit half so hard drove him from the box? Why is it that some of the best pitchers in the world are not another? Simply this: It's the 'Indian sign.' In each case they've got the other fellow's goat, got a mental drop on him."

PRINCE KATSURA DEAD FOLLOWING LONG ILLNESS

Prince Taro Katsura, who was born in 1847, was one of Japan's most prominent soldiers and statesmen. He will be remembered outside his own country principally for the part he took in bringing about the Anglo-Japanese alliance.

NOON EDITION Tomorrow

The Star will issue as usual on Saturday a Noon Edition, giving all of the news of the day up to the noon hour.

ASSASSIN IS DETECTED

Chief of Peking's Mounted Police Confesses Plan to Kill Chinese President.

PRINCE KATSURA DEAD FOLLOWING LONG ILLNESS

Prince Taro Katsura, who was born in 1847, was one of Japan's most prominent soldiers and statesmen. He will be remembered outside his own country principally for the part he took in bringing about the Anglo-Japanese alliance.

MANAGER McGRAW SAYS

"Base ball is today a struggle between brains, a wonderfully strategic war whose battles are generally decided by seemingly trivial points by psychological workings overturning the game. I've watched and studied it day after day. Why is it that a certain Chicago pitcher always had us at his mercy, while other teams that could not hit half so hard drove him from the box? Why is it that some of the best pitchers in the world are not another? Simply this: It's the 'Indian sign.' In each case they've got the other fellow's goat, got a mental drop on him."

PRINCE KATSURA DEAD FOLLOWING LONG ILLNESS

Prince Taro Katsura, who was born in 1847, was one of Japan's most prominent soldiers and statesmen. He will be remembered outside his own country principally for the part he took in bringing about the Anglo-Japanese alliance.

NOON EDITION Tomorrow

The Star will issue as usual on Saturday a Noon Edition, giving all of the news of the day up to the noon hour.

ASSASSIN IS DETECTED

Chief of Peking's Mounted Police Confesses Plan to Kill Chinese President.

PRINCE KATSURA DEAD FOLLOWING LONG ILLNESS

Prince Taro Katsura, who was born in 1847, was one of Japan's most prominent soldiers and statesmen. He will be remembered outside his own country principally for the part he took in bringing about the Anglo-Japanese alliance.

MANAGER McGRAW SAYS

"Base ball is today a struggle between brains, a wonderfully strategic war whose battles are generally decided by seemingly trivial points by psychological workings overturning the game. I've watched and studied it day after day. Why is it that a certain Chicago pitcher always had us at his mercy, while other teams that could not hit half so hard drove him from the box? Why is it that some of the best pitchers in the world are not another? Simply this: It's the 'Indian sign.' In each case they've got the other fellow's goat, got a mental drop on him."

PRINCE KATSURA DEAD FOLLOWING LONG ILLNESS

Prince Taro Katsura, who was born in 1847, was one of Japan's most prominent soldiers and statesmen. He will be remembered outside his own country principally for the part he took in bringing about the Anglo-Japanese alliance.

NOON EDITION Tomorrow

The Star will issue as usual on Saturday a Noon Edition, giving all of the news of the day up to the noon hour.

ASSASSIN IS DETECTED

Chief of Peking's Mounted Police Confesses Plan to Kill Chinese President.

PRINCE KATSURA DEAD FOLLOWING LONG ILLNESS

Prince Taro Katsura, who was born in 1847, was one of Japan's most prominent soldiers and statesmen. He will be remembered outside his own country principally for the part he took in bringing about the Anglo-Japanese alliance.

MANAGER McGRAW SAYS

"Base ball is today a struggle between brains, a wonderfully strategic war whose battles are generally decided by seemingly trivial points by psychological workings overturning the game. I've watched and studied it day after day. Why is it that a certain Chicago pitcher always had us at his mercy, while other teams that could not hit half so hard drove him from the box? Why is it that some of the best pitchers in the world are not another? Simply this: It's the 'Indian sign.' In each case they've got the other fellow's goat, got a mental drop on him."

PRINCE KATSURA DEAD FOLLOWING LONG ILLNESS

Prince Taro Katsura, who was born in 1847, was one of Japan's most prominent soldiers and statesmen. He will be remembered outside his own country principally for the part he took in bringing about the Anglo-Japanese alliance.

NOON EDITION Tomorrow

The Star will issue as usual on Saturday a Noon Edition, giving all of the news of the day up to the noon hour.

ASSASSIN IS DETECTED

Chief of Peking's Mounted Police Confesses Plan to Kill Chinese President.

PRINCE KATSURA DEAD FOLLOWING LONG ILLNESS

Prince Taro Katsura, who was born in 1847, was one of Japan's most prominent soldiers and statesmen. He will be remembered outside his own country principally for the part he took in bringing about the Anglo-Japanese alliance.

MANAGER McGRAW SAYS

"Base ball is today a struggle between brains, a wonderfully strategic war whose battles are generally decided by seemingly trivial points by psychological workings overturning the game. I've watched and studied it day after day. Why is it that a certain Chicago pitcher always had us at his mercy, while other teams that could not hit half so hard drove him from the box? Why is it that some of the best pitchers in the world are not another? Simply this: It's the 'Indian sign.' In each case they've got the other fellow's goat, got a mental drop on him."

PRINCE KATSURA DEAD FOLLOWING LONG ILLNESS

Prince Taro Katsura, who was born in 1847, was one of Japan's most prominent soldiers and statesmen. He will be remembered outside his own country principally for the part he took in bringing about the Anglo-Japanese alliance.

NOON EDITION Tomorrow

The Star will issue as usual on Saturday a Noon Edition, giving all of the news of the day up to the noon hour.